演讲题目:

ARCHITECTURE IS MADE FOR PEOPLE A Holistic-Phenomenological Approach to Architecture

演讲人:

Nili Portugali, Architect A.A Dip. (London)
Technion Israel Institute of Technology Architecture department

演讲人简介:

Nili Portugali is a lecturer at the Technion Israel Institute of Technology Architecture department, Haifa (until 2006 at the Bezalel Academy of Art & Design, Architectural Department, Jerusalem), and a practicing architect working in Israel for more than 30 years. Her work has focused on both practice and theory, and is tightly connected to the holistic-phenomenological school of thought. She is a graduate of the Architectural Association School of Architecture (A.A), London. She did postgraduate studies in Architecture and Buddhism at the University of California in Berkeley. Her firm is involved in a variety of projects in unique areas of historic or environmental sensitivity, in urban design, architecture, landscape design and interior design, disciplines she regards as one continuous system. She has recently published her new book, which was nominated for The RIBA International Book Award Architecture Prize 2007. (www.niliportugali.com)
