Nili Portugali's

And The Alley She Whitewashed in Light Blue

Israel, 2018, Dir. Nili Portugali, Art-Docudrama, 72mins, Hebrew w/ English subtitles, Rated: G

In this award-winning film, the director, an architect, takes the viewers on an intimate journey into the Holy kabbalah city of Tsefat, Israel. Unfolding in a poetic and spectacular language to a discovery of universal insights from her holistic, spiritual, and scientific point of view: What is the secret of all Timeless places in which one feels at Home? And what is that Pure Art of making that creates them - at any culture, place, and time? Via reconstructing memories, reflections of her grandma who was like a Zen Master to her, and an alley whitewashed in light blue – the film crosses new boundaries combining art and cinema. We thank the director for sharing this film with us. She will be available for an online Q&A following the screening.

A film you do not want to miss!
